AICTE Prohibition of ragging act 1999 which is in effect from 15 May 1999 has the following provisions for action against ragging.

- a) Ragging within or outside of any educational institution is prohibited.
- b) Whoever directly or indirectly commits, participates in, abets, or propagates ragging within or outside any educational institution shall, on conviction, be punished with imprisonment for a term up to 2 years and / or as per action of law.
- c) Any student convicted of an offence of ragging shall be dismissed from the educational institution and such student shall not be admitted in any other educational institution for a period of five years from the date of order of such dismissal.
- d) Whenever any student or, as the case may be, the parent or a teacher of an educational institution complains, in writing, of ragging to the head of the educational institution shall, without prejudice to the foregoing provisions, within seven days of the receipt of the complaint, enquire into the matter mentioned in the complaint, enquire into the matter mentioned in the complaint and if, prima facie, it is found true, suspend the student who is accused of the offence, and shall immediately forward the complaint to the police station having jurisdiction over the area in which the educational institution is situated for further action. Where, on enquiry by the head of the educational institution, it is found that there is no substance, prima facie, in the complaint received; he / she shall intimate the fact, in writing, to the complaint. The decision of the head of the educational institution shall be final.

- e) If the head of the educational institution fails or neglects to act in the manner specified in section "d" above when a complaint of ragging is made, such person shall be deemed to have abetted the offence and shall on conviction be punished as provided for in section "b" above.

f) Any acts or its amendments which may be published from time to time by AICTE , Government or Judgements by Hon. Supreme Court of India, Hon. High Court of Mumbai etc. will be applicable to candidates & Institutions covered under these rules of admission.

g) Students / parents are informed to see the copy of AICTE regulations on curbing the menace of ragging in Higher Educational Institutions, 2009 and read it carefully and fully understand the provisions contained in the said regulations.

h) Students and parents are suggested to login on www.amanmovement.com for furnishing information about anti-ragging. The PDF generated after fulfilling required information should be duly signed by both students and parents and are required to submit to Government Polytechnic, Daman office.

At the institution level: Depending upon the nature and gravity of the offence as established by the Anti-Ragging Committee of the institution, the possible punishments for those found guilty of ragging at the institution level shall be any one or any combination of the following:

- (i) Cancellation of admission.
- (ii) Suspension from attending classes.
- (iii) Withholding / withdrawing scholarship / fellowship and other benefits.
- (iv) Debarring from appearing in any test / examination or other evaluation process.
